

Food for Change

During the April Board Study, we will view and discuss an excerpt of the feature-length documentary, Food for change.

From Foodforchange.coop:

The movie tells the story of the cooperative movement in the U.S. through interviews, rare archival footage, and commentary by the filmmaker and social historians. This is the first film to examine the important historical role played by food co-ops, their pioneering quest for organic foods, and their current efforts to create regional food systems. Additionally, the film shows how the co-op movement strengthens communities where they are located, enhancing local economies and food security.

There is no Board Study homework this month!
